CLAIMS TO PROVE GRANDFATHER OF HITLER WAS JEW

Paper Says It Has Found Grave in Bucharest.

(Copyright: 1933: By the New York Times.)

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 20.—The Freie Press Journal, German language paper published here, carries in today's issue a documented claim that Chancellor Hitler of Germany himself is of Jewish descent. Photographs are published of a tombstone alleged to be that of Hitler's grandfather, whose name is given as Adolph Abraham Hitler. The stone is engraved in Hebrew and Rumanian characters and says the alleged grandfather was buried in a Jewish cemetery in Bucharest in 1892. The photograph was sent by a Bucharest journalist.

This journalist says Adolph Abraham Hitler was a porter in the Hotel Boulevards in Bucharest. He was born in Poland, died of a heart attack in Bucharest and was buried by a Jewish charitable institution called Philanthropia in a Jewish cemetery. It is said. His grave is said to lie in the seventh row of the eighteenth group and bears the number nine. The inscription on the tombstone reads as follows: "Here rest the mortal remains of Adolph Abraham Hitler, Jewish, who died Oct. 26, 1892, at 60 years of age. Pray for him."

The report says in conclusion: "Although Jews have little reason to be proud of the fact that Hitler, according to his racial conceptions, is properly a Jew, the newly created office of heredity in Berlin will undoubtedly be interested in the above."

7. Headstone of a Jew named Adolph Hitler (1832-1892), in the Jewish cemetery in Bucharest.

If Hitler truly hated Jews, then why does he receive attention by the Jews? The answer seems obvious at first: the Jews have been using Hitler and the Nazis as a means of gaining empathy from the docile masses. However, the Jews have been known to give attention only to those they have control over. Anyone against the Jews would be unlikely to receive popularity for speaking against them. If non-Jews were to be against Jewish policies, we would most likely be executed before securing any reasonable positions in the government.

Hitler spoke out about how Jews control Germany and the rest of the world. Yet he was able to acquire complete authority over Germany. A discrepancy to consider: Assuming, and we have every right to believe so, that Hitler was right in stating that Jews control the world, and are the ones responsible for the corruption of all nations, how was he himself able to gain power in Germany while openly speaking out against the same people who were then - and, of course, still are, and naturally, to an even greater extent now than ever - in control of world affairs?

How was Hitler able to escape the repercussions expected from the international Jews, when he supposedly displayed such a conspicuous threat to their people through the course of decades?

These difficulties would make sense if Hitler wanted a commonwealth for the Jews - by hiding them well in camps, where they could perform plays, have orchestras, swimming pools, brothels, full bath and shower stalls, etc. - all while the best of the Germans and other non-Jews were being brutally killed in the war. These difficulties would make sense if the Jews created "anti-Semitism" in Europe to drive Jews out of Europe and into Palestine, to unify Jews, to bring pity to Jews, and to develop their conquest of world sovereignty. These difficulties would make sense after one realizes that nothing Hitler did ultimately would benefit anyone - save world Jewry itself!

In his public speeches, Hitler always claimed that he aimed for and wanted nothing but peace. In private, the Fuehrer stated, "The final aim of politics is war." Hitler's public cries for peace were nothing more than deception to lead Germans into the delusion that everything they desired would be handed to them - if only other nations understood the Fuehrer like the German masses did! As is always the case, actions would prove everything, and words nothing.

Hitler had a massive war in plan since the beginning of his political career. Hitler never wanted peace; he longed for destruction, disorder, and chaos among the people - and he absolutely got what he wanted! All this destruction, chaos, and disorder among the non-Jewish peoples was occurring while Jews were being hidden away and protected in "concentration camps" at Hitler's own demand.

The Fuehrer himself admitted in 1943: "Every day 10,000 of my best soldiers die on the battlefield, while the others carry on living in the camps."

If one carefully studies Hitler's orders and actions during World War II, it does not appear improbable that Hitler deliberately made key mistakes throughout the war to sabotage Germany's chances of success and to cause the defeat of the principles and ideas associated with Nazism, including racial awareness and eugenics - and thereby the victory of World Jewry.

The people who worship Hitler seem to understand nothing of psychological warfare, or that the Jews will trick men into fighting for their cause by pretending to be working in their interests. If the Jewish conspiracy was true, an "anti-Semite" like Hitler would never have been able to get power in Germany without being under the control of the Jews.

"Hitler is the Jewish messiah, because he will cause all those countries of the world to be open to the Jews, which now are closed to them."

- Prague rabbi, 1939

In 1919, Adolf Hitler marched among officers at the funeral of Jewish Communist leader Kurt Eisner with a black ribbon of mourning and a red communist ribbon in his hand.

Did you know that the founder of Zionism used "anti-Semitism" as a way to deceive us?

"It is essential that the sufferings of Jews ... become worse ... this will assist in realization of our plans ... I have an excellent idea ... I shall induce anti-semites to liquidate Jewish wealth ... The anti-semites will assist us thereby in that they will strengthen the persecution and oppression of Jews. The anti-semites shall be our best friends."

- From Herzl's diary, 1897

"People of Jewish national circles are very excited about the radical German politics toward the Jews, because this has increased Jewish population in Palestine many-fold. In a short time they will become the majority among the Arabs."

In 1945, at the end of the Second World War, the tribunals held to investigate War Crimes by the NSDAP censored any materials recording the Allies' assistance to Hitler. The Rothschilds, meanwhile, took a giant step towards their goal of world domination when the second "League of Nations", called the "United Nations", was approved that same year.

In 1942, Wall Street executive banker and investor Prescott Bush, father of future American Presidents George Herbert Walker and George Walker, had his company seized under the Trading with the Enemy Act. He was funding Hitler from America, while American soldiers were being killed by German soldiers. He wasn't the only one.

The Nazi principle of lebensraum - geographical expansion of Germany to eastern lands - was developed by the political geographer Karl Haushofer, whose wife, Martha Mayer-Doss, was Jewish. The Nazi Party's ideologist, Alfred Rosenberg, who was of partly Jewish descent, would further emphasize this principle. So, too, would Hitler himself in his book Mein Kampf (1925), which helped lay the groundwork of the principles of, and for subsequent actions which were to be taken by, the National Socialist Party.

If anyone doubts that there were any Nazis of Jewish descent during Hitler's control over Germany, this list of Jewish Nazis ought to have them re-think this gravely mistaken assumption.

In 1940, Hansjürgen Koehler, in his book, Inside the Gestapo, states the following, of Maria Anna Schicklgruber, Adolf Hitler's grandmother:

"A little servant girl ... came to Vienna and became a domestic servant ... at the Rothschild mansion ... and Hitler's unknown grandfather must be probably looked for in this magnificent house."

This is reinforced by Professor Walter Langer, in his book The Mind Of Adolf Hitler, in which he states:

"Adolf's father, Alois Hitler, was the illegitimate son of Maria Anna Schicklgruber Maria Anna Schicklgruber was living in Vienna at the time she conceived. At that time she was employed as a servant in the home of Baron Rothschild. As soon as the family discovered her pregnancy she was sent back home ... where Alois was born."

Maria Anna Schicklgruber, Adolf

Hitler's paternal grandmother. Not only was she employed in the Rothschild's estate, her physical appearance also bears a resemblance to that of a person with mixed Jewish blood.

On the surface, it would appear Hitler was unlikely to be a Rothschild, but then again, when one discovers the benefits that the Rothschilds got out of both World Wars, both financially and politically, a Rothschild connection does not appear as outlandish as it may initially seem. These people must surely be aware of the important missing details in the official Holocaust story, like the part played by International Jewish bankers, such as Max Warburg and the Rothschilds, in bringing Hitler to power and financing the Nazi movement. The Jews helped Hitler and the NSDAP get control of Germany.

Hitler, a failed artist supposedly descended from a family of peasants, a half-educated man who could barely claim a proficiency in the one language he could read and write in, questioned the wit of Johann Goethe and Friedrich Schiller in his turgid, unoriginal, wandering, and illogical manifesto Mein Kampf - a book which, in the first edition at least, contained ample mistakes in grammar. Hitler's family seemed conceited, and to be lacking in morality, and thus great candidates for the International Jews, who can be controlled through blackmail, deception, and offers of fame, sexual pleasure, and money.

Hitler's roommate during his Vienna days, Gustl Kubizek, said that Hitler's sketches were terrible, and that Hitler never went to the library or read books.

"I couldn't ask anyone to read Mein Kampf. It's so badly written that any lover of German language, literature, and grammar would suffer if they read it. [...] But reading it, it was clear as daylight that this man would lead the country to war one way or another."

- Otto von Habsburg, son of the last Austrian emperor, in Hitler: A Profile, "The Blackmailer"

Hitler had none of the honest capacity that mathematics and the sciences require. He was an eloquent speaker, a master of crowd psychology. What ethnicity do we see today, which dominates over the study of that field, which dominates over the study of promotional speaking, and advertising, and dramatic art?

Herschel Chaim Steinschneider (who later changed his name to Erik Jan Hanussen) was a Jewish publicist, charlatan, occultist, and clairvoyant performer who personally instructed Hitler on dramatic art and mass hypnotism. He taught Hitler his crowd control methods using gestures and dramatic pauses. Walter C. Langer, a psychoanalyst, prepared a psychological profile of Hitler for the Office of Strategic Services in 1943, and mentions that, "during the early 1920s Hitler took regular lessons in speaking and in mass psychology from a man named [Hanussen] who was also a practicing astrologer and fortune-teller. He was an extremely clever individual who taught Hitler a great deal concerning the importance of staging meetings to obtain the greatest dramatic effect." The Jewish occultist was even said to have predicted the Reichstag fire of 1933, the event that led to Hitler seizing absolute power in Germany.

"Great liars are also great magicians."

"What good fortune for governments that the people do not think."

- Adolf Hitler

Note the dramatically low, sloped forehead; the heavy supraorbital ridges; the thick, fleshy eyelids; the bulging, fleshy, ugly nose; the broad cheekbones; and the ears resembling those of a rat's. When viewed in combination, these are all warning clues that this creature was a Jew, and therefore should never have been trusted by the German people - or any people, for that matter.

During Hitler's trial in 1924 for the failed Beer Hall Putsch, racial hygienist and eugenicist Max von Gruber, who was commissioned as a witness, described Hitler as "inferior type, crossbreed", with the appearance "not of a man exercising authority in perfect self-command, but of raving excitement. At the end an expression of satisfied egotism."

Did this creature physically appear anything close to the supposedly "ideal" Nordic type that the movement he controlled so openly advocated?

Hitler was reported to have been very uncomfortable with his own skin. Indeed, in his early years a number of persons had accused him of "looking like a Jew". He was especially mortified by his forehead and nose - both of which bore "Jewish" resemblances.

As the historian Timothy Ryback notes, "Hitler's own family in no way measured up to the Aryan ideal that he placed before Germany; and there are very few members of his family, when you look through there, who would have measured up to that, and the truth is, most of them would have been considered a blemish or an embarrassment."

In 1940, Aloisia Veit, a relative of Adolf Hitler through her Schicklgruber ancestors, was put to death at Hartheim Euthanasia Centre for having a case of schizophrenia, a hereditary psychiatric disorder which was used as a justification for the compulsory sterilization of German citizens, in accordance with the Law for the Prevention of Hereditarily Diseased Offspring enacted in July 1933 under Hitler's rule.

The 1935 Nuremberg Laws which were approved by Hitler did not consider someone with only one Jewish grandparent a Jew. The law even considered a person with two Jewish grandparents as German, so long as he did not practice the Jewish faith or have a Jewish spouse! Since 1970, even the Jewish state of Israel has given "automatic citizenship" to any person with one Jewish grandparent. Israel officially recognizes people as Jews who have only one Jewish grandparent out of four grandparents. So, why was Hitler so forgiving to people of Jewish ancestry? Did Hitler approve of this statute because he was aware that he was one-fourth Jewish, and therefore could pass as "German" in the eyes of the law?

Hitler supposedly was very ashamed of his ancestry. He never talked about his family with others, and ordered his relatives' grave-sites and paperwork in Austria to be destroyed following its annexation in 1938. Why would he do this? For someone who considered race and blood to be of such profound importance to the interests of the state, Hitler, as the sole leader of Germany, seemed to give very little or no attention to his own family history.

"After annexation of Austria into Germany, one of the first moves Hitler made was to make all the Villages and cemeteries with the names of his Ancestors disappear, and in their place were established military training grounds."

- Hennecke Kardel, Adolf Hitler: Founder of Israel - Israel in War with Jews, Modjeskis' Society Dedicated to Preservation of Cultures, San Diego, (1997), pp. 5-6

acutely remarks that "When you start looking at the family history, it really is quite remarkable how much there was that could be unpacked; and I think Hitler, the only way he could deal with this was to put a lid on top of all of it, and keep it hidden from public."

Some admirers of the Fuehrer say we ought not to disregard the fact that Hitler loved children and dogs. Well, what do children and dogs have in common? Typically, they are relatively powerless and are very easy for a man to exploit. Hitler's love of children, young women, and dogs can only be explained by the fact that these targets were easy for him to control and to mold to follow his every demand. This is only certain to be expected of a political leader whose desire was to repress any and all disagreement which any honest and rational man would have expected to encounter while in the leadership of an entire nation - even if these disagreements were expressed by men with far more knowledge and experience than Hitler himself. There were plenty of men in Germany who were more knowledgeable and who had more political experience than Hitler and the subjects he dabbled with. Hitler's only claims to exceptional skill were his keen understanding of human behavior, and his uncanny ability to exploit the emotions of the crowds.

Hitler had an affection for adolescent girls who were much younger than him - girls he could dominate and control, and who would be obedient to his every demand. Allegedly, he had inherited this habit from his father, Alois. During the 1920s, Hitler got into an affair with Geli Raubal, his niece. Hitler's controlling attitude would eventually drive her to suicide. Fortunately for Hitler, this happened several years before his rise to power in 1933; the incident was effectively stifled and prevented from reaching the notice of the public.

"A girl of 18 to 20 is as malleable as wax."

- Adolf Hitler

Another of Hitler's romantic partners was Maria Reiter. She described one incident in which "two dogs suddenly attacked each other Hitler suddenly intervened, like a maniac he hit his dog with his riding whip ... and shook him violently by the collar. He was very excited I did not expect that he could hit his dog so brutally and ruthlessly, the dog which he had said he could not live without. Yet he beat up his most loyal companion." Maria asked him, "How can you be so brutal and beat your dog like that?" He replied, "It was necessary."

After World War I, Adolf Hitler's older half-sister, Angela, worked at a Jewish community kitchen in Vienna before moving into Hitler's household in Berchtesgaden as a housekeeper, and managed the Jewish Mensa Academia Judaica, a boarding house for Jews.

Would Jews allow a "Gentile" to manage a Jews' organization? Or were some members of the Hitler family Jews? The ADL would never let anyone touch on this. If one were to look closely, the Jews would never let non-Jews into their organizations because the non-Jews would naturally infiltrate their profiles, and, in turn, they would be killed.

There is a book called Hitler's Jewish Soldiers. While it does contain true information about the Jews, the book is written by Bryan Mark Rigg, who is partly Jewish. For this reason, the author of this article is quite distrustful about whether he is credible about the topic he discusses. The Jews seem either to become quiet whenever it is mentioned, or they will just carry on and ignore it. Perhaps they are secretly laughing at the people who bring it up.

"Before Hitler became Chancellor of Germany in 1933, there were twenty-two families named Hitler or Hittler listed in the New York telephone directories. By the end of the war there were none. Ironically, most of the former American Hitlers were Jewish."

- Laura Lee, The Name's Familiar II, Pelican Pub. Co., Gretna, LA, (2001), p. 177

Hitler was allegedly descended from an illegitimate child of the Rothschild family. Adolf's grandmother, Frau Schicklgruber, had been a servant in the Rothschild household and while there became pregnant. Gary Allen, in his 1973 book None Dare Call It Conspiracy, states:

"One major reason for the historical blackout on the role of the international bankers in political history is the Rothschilds were Jewish The Jewish members of the conspiracy have used an organisation called The Anti-Defamation League (ADL) as an instrument to try and convince everyone that any mention of the Rothschilds and their allies is an attack on all Jews. In this way they have stifled almost all honest scholarship on international bankers and made the subject taboo within universities. Any individual or book exploring this subject is immediately attacked by hundreds of ADL communities all over the country. The ADL has never let the truth or logic interfere with its highly professional smear jobs Actually, nobody has a right to be more angry at the Rothschild clique than their fellow Jews The Rothschild empire helped finance Adolf Hitler."

The endless bombings as well as other forms of destruction of cities throughout the world by the Jews, the hiding of the Jews in concentration camps while the best of the non-Jewish populations were being squandered in war, the racially-opposed and dysgenic practices of the world which came about as a result of the so-called
