Examples of Jewish Vanity and Contempt

- June 20, 2022

As someone who quite regularly used the term "Gentile" to refer to non-Jews, this term will no longer be used in my writing or speech. I, like most others, assumed "Gentile" was a neutral term to refer to ourselves. But the term is likely more sinister than the Jews would like the masses to believe.

In the relation - perhaps it would be more plausible to call it opposition - between Jews and humanity, three terms are typically used in reference to the former group when addressing or in contradistinction to the latter. These terms are non-Jews, "Gentiles", or "goyim".

The term "goy" is publicly viewed as the most offensive of these terms, while both "Gentile" and "non-Jew" are commonly viewed as neutral terms. According to mainstream Jewish sources, the words "goy" and "Gentile" share a common origin, "goy" merely being the Hebrew term for "nation" or "non-Jew". Remarkably, however, even Jewish-owned Dictionary.com makes the admission: "Use of this term [i.e., Goy] usually implies a contempt for non-Jews as being different from or even inferior to Jews"!

"Gentile" seems to be the Jews' preferred term when referring to humans (non-Jews) in public spaces. The Jews try to present the term as a neutral one, but one always hears the same smugness and vain demeanor of Jews towards humans whenever this word is uttered.

"Gentile" appears to be a mere euphemism for "goy" in the minds of the Jews, to be used only when expediency would discourage the usage of the latter word.

That the Jews do not see themselves as one of humanity, and that they stress this contrast not only by "goy" but by "Gentile" also, is evinced by a contemptuous book of the title You Gentiles by the Jewish author Maurice Samuel.

It is for this reason that "non-Jew" must be the preferred term of choice for us. That the Jews openly express a distinction between themselves and mankind by such terms suggests their difference from us. The Jews may well be something beyond a race, distinguished from the human races not from the possession of common physical and mental tendencies, but from their distinction from mankind when viewed on a macrocosmic level. We may then use the dichotomy of "Jewry vs. humanity", thus stressing the evident gulf separating the two from one another. But such thinking must be presented in a rather circumspect way, if at all, even among anti-Jewish circles at the present moment, because most of them would be incredulous of it, and to do so would introduce confusion in the minds of many. For now, non-Jew must suffice.

As the German writer Theodor Fritsch notes (Handbuch der Judenfrage), the Jew presents himself "differently among his kind than among non-Jews." One does not often hear the Jews utter the word "goyim" to refer to non-Jewish humanity - not in public, at least. But one may rest assured that such contemptuous, derogatory terms are easily within the access of Jews whenever they are placed in the company of their own likeness.

With us, they attempt to foist their practices upon us, to "normalize" what the noblest of man has deemed abhorrent or debasing; among themselves, we must remember, no such process is necessary. The Jew, we must remember, is "normal" when he is among his own kin; he is only profoundly wicked according to the most acute moral and spiritual compass of man. His behavior among non-Jewish populations is merely an incomplete representation of the true extent of his burning hatred towards noble and true things, which he usually attempts to suppress whenever in the face of humanity. Their own written works prove that their nasty, denigratory language is much more freely shown when they are in the company of their kind.

Another example of the conceitedness of the Jews lies in their love of meretricious titles and affiliations, which they use to trick the masses into unthinking credulity. A list of some of the most common titles used by Jews against humanity is presented below.

- Doctors
- Scientists
- FBI (or other Federal) Agents
- CEOs
- Professional Athletes
- Professional Musicians and Actors
- "Prestigious" Universities and Academic Institutions (e.g., Harvard, MIT, Stanford, Oxford, etc.)

It is probable that the amount of false trust and legitimacy the Jews have instilled on people's minds through their control of the media, schools, etc. concerning these domains affects nearly all of us to some degree. The Jews have been able to trick large sections of the public into thinking that the individuals belonging to these groups are at a level above everyone else.

While we must concede that some superiority is the property of such persons, if only in a social or pecuniary sense, it is doubtful indeed whether it is true in an intellectual and moral sense. Nearly every non-Jew is superficial in that he or she assumes that because a person is higher in the social ladder, or has a prestigious title or position, he must necessarily be better equipped intellectually and morally. In such miscalculation lies much of our present sorrow, and the maintenance of incompetent persons in positions which their inherent capacities are not truly capable of taking on or of appreciating.

Although it is practical to have titles in society based on merit, the problem I wish to point out is that too often these titles are bestowed on questionable virtue. For example, the Jews in the leadership of the FBI have made it a requirement for new agents to "tour the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum in Washington, D.C. to learn what can happen when law enforcement loses its core values." How can non-Jews have faith in such organizations when employees are required to visit a such a "memorial"? It is clear just from this fact that the Jews in control of the federal government do not have the people's interests in mind, and that the servant at the forefront of their minds is something else. It is no surprise that the Jews have invested massive funds to "glorify" the federal agencies through their control of the television and film industries, as through legal dramas and crime thriller films. Indeed, the federal agencies themselves are said to lend support to these television shows and movies whenever they are presented favorably.

In saying this, I do not wish to insinuate that the law is useless, or that the FBI or other federal organizations are not without their merits. It is possible that many individuals at the lower levels of the Bureau are well-meaning in their effort to protect and preserve the laws of the country. And the law must always be respected and followed. We may disagree on certain points of it, but this is only natural. No body of laws is made for individual wants. Any revision of the laws must take place legally. I cannot do better here than to quote from a more eloquent person on the subject: "Let every American, every lover of liberty, every well-wisher to his posterity swear by the blood of the Revolution never to violate in the least particular the laws of the country, and never to tolerate their violation by others" (Abraham Lincoln in an address on "The Perpetuation of Our Political Institutions", January 27, 1838). That some changes are absolutely necessary is undeniable.

Furthermore, the business executives and CEOs are overwhelmingly comprised of Jews and secret Jews. Wealth cannot be used as a yardstick for virtue. Actually, those at the extreme levels of wealth are likely to be more corrupt than the average person, because given the present situation, one cannot get so far in a financial sense without being either a Jew, or a collaborator of this race. Yet the masses still are easily led to believe that a man is competent simply because he is rich.

"Doctor" and "Scientist" are likewise highly ambiguous titles. When a person calls himself a "doctor", the experienced man can hardly imagine with much certainty where this person's knowledge or merit lies. For example, a person with a Ph.D. in religious studies can legally refer to himself as a "doctor". What the masses typically have in mind when they think of "doctor" is, of course, a physician or medical practitioner. It is not hard to show that medicine is a field which is flooded with Jews. But even among the physicians and medical practitioners, a fair amount of credibility and merit depends on the field of specialization. Of the various medical specialties, the pediatricians, psychiatrists, gynecologists, urologists, and dermatologists, seem to comprise more than their share of degenerate, undesirable, and unreliable personalities. Incidentally, it is precisely these subfields of medicine where the Jews have their strongest foothold. And it is well-established that the Jews control most, if not all, of the schools from which academic degrees are earned.

In terms of "scientists", we have here to deal with another title of much dubiousness, yet which large numbers of the public unthinkingly place on a high plane of social value. Physicists, chemists, biologists, anthropologists, psychologists, and sociologists alike are "scientists". But it is probable that different levels of intellectual ability and types of personality characterize the different types of "scientist". If we speak of intellectual capacity only, it is likely the case, as it appears to be commonly believed in scientific circles, that speaking in general terms, of five of the more common scientific pursuits - physics, chemistry, biology, psychology, and sociology - physicists rank the highest mentally, chemists second, biologists third, and psychologists fourth, with sociologists deemed the least able of them. (*September 20, 2022: As regards the biologists and social scientists, the average differences in mental ability would appear to be smaller than previously assumed. According to Graduate Record Examination (General Test) scores, sorted by intended major, the average biologist seems to have only a very slight advantage to social scientists in the three kinds of mental ability measured (verbal, quantitative, and analytical). In fact, when selecting for verbal ability alone the social scientists have the advantage, while in mathematics the biologists are the higher scorers. The scores were taken from the pre-October, 2001 examinations, which correlated strongly with IQ. Similar findings are seen in the data presented in Anne Roe, The Making of a Scientist (1953).*)

From personal observation, it seems also to be the case that the biologists are the most apt to recognize and appreciate an inherent basis for the differences we see between humans. The psychologists seem somewhat less inclined, with the sociologist the least inclined by a fairly wide margin. (We may exclude the chemists and physicists from such a ranking, since their fields do not generally pertain to the study of the organization of human society.) Probably part of this denial is due to the lower average intelligence of social scientists in contrast with those engaged in natural sciences, but a larger part is likely the result of inferior characteristics of personality and temperament on the part of social scientists.

This is not to say that we must do away with these fields - rather, we are in need of better, more competent sociologists and psychologists with a strong knowledge of the biological foundations of humanity and society. We must reject the incompetent, degenerate, and deceptive Jews who have infiltrated the social sciences and supersede them with competent workers. It is probable that some improvement in this respect could be had through proper training and education on the significance of heredity in social and individual life. Psychologists and sociologists have much to appreciate in the field of biology, especially of heredity. Their knowledge and appreciation of genetics is often too meager, but it behooves them, perhaps more than other disciples of science, to have an insight into how it molds and affects our affairs.

It is likely also the case that the Jews infiltrate the social sciences to an even greater degree than the natural sciences. (It is obvious, however, that the Jews have infiltrated and debased all the scientific fields, though likely in varying degree.) And to change the opinions of such an obstinate and dogmatic race through education and enlightenment would seem to be impossible.

To turn to the professional sports teams and organizations, these seem to be nearly all Jew-controlled as well. Again, the Jews are giving fame and immense sums of money to members of these professional teams. Moreover, contrary to the suggestion we hear so often that sports be used as a basis for friendship and "team spirit", the Jews seem to be using sporting competitions to promote animosity between different nations and races. I wouldn't say the people who follow professional sports are especially interested in promoting intelligent cooperation between people. One also cannot escape from the fact that given the "hero-like" status the Jews bestow on professional sports players, these players must themselves be Jews.

The Jews are using sports as a way to distract us from important issues. I am reminded of Protocol 13:3 of the Protocols of Zion: "SOON WE SHALL BEGIN THROUGH THE PRESS TO PROPOSE COMPETITIONS IN ART, IN SPORT IN ALL KINDS: these interests will finally distract their minds from questions in which we should find ourselves compelled to oppose them." Who may be said to benefit from all these sporting events? In the end, it's just one Jewish group winning over another. The Jews may as well "rig" the games, because either way, the "victors" are always the same group!

Further, the famous musicians, actors, and other performers today are virtually all of Jewish race. While it is obvious and well-known that Jews control Hollywood, it isn't so known that the Jews control all or nearly all major acting and media production studios throughout the world. "Hollywood" is just one part of their scheme. They control the rest of the world too, folks. Their activities can by no means be said to be limited to a particular geographical location.

The universities and academic system today are mostly under Jewish hands also. This is especially true of "prestigious" academies like Harvard, MIT, Stanford, and Oxford, which may be said to be thoroughly under Jewish domination. Curiously, it is precisely the universities that are most directly and fully under Jewish control that the masses esteem most highly. It is the name and reputation more than anything that gives the Jews at these institutions a good image in the eyes of the masses. The Jews at the universities and school system are spreading propaganda and are promoting destructive ideas on "feminism", "sexual orientations", "racism", "white nationalism", and similar nonsense.

Hello my friend, here I am again, don't know if you remember me. So, I'm here again because I have another information going around inside my head you know, can't quite get around it. And you are one the few that I trust as a truth teller in this damn prison world. So, the thing is, I heard a lot of conspiracy around "Jesuits", even by people with the Jewish question, questioning if the Jews are the real enemy or the puppet masters are this Jesuits folks. The Vatican, the Fabian society, and the likes. Here, this is a quite big reply about this, with information, so you can see what I mean: <https://www.reddit.com/r/conspiracy/comments/qynx8c/-/hlh5l4a>
Hope you can share some light with me. Many thanks.
Cheers.

Yes, I do remember you. I'm happy to give my opinion on these questions, but I can't say I have studied much about the relation of the Jesuits, the Vatican and the Fabians to the Jews. I can merely provide a few thoughts on the matter.

The Jesuit movement as far as I know is just an extension of the Roman Catholic church and was founded by Ignatius Loyola in opposition to the Reformation of the 16th century.

~~Sorry~~ I suppose Loyola himself was a secret Jew. He was from Spain, which had - and still does have - many secret Jews.

On the basis of his appearance, he was not European or even predominantly European, but probably was of Armenoid racial stock. (This was the belief of Hans F. K. Guenther, who was an expert in racial morphology and I concur with his view.) Of course, this in itself doesn't prove Loyola was a Jew, since Armenoid racial characters occasionally appear in the non-Jewish population of Spain, but it is at least a suggestion.

A cruelty seemed to speak from his eyes, which caused the Dutch historian Willem van Loon to express the same loathing towards him that he felt towards Hitler - whom we know was a Jew. Incidentally, the Nazi Party is supposed to have been inspired by the teachings and the fanatical allegiance of the Jesuits.

At any rate, the Catholic Church itself is undoubtedly controlled by Jews. Most of the Jews who are - or are at least pretending to be - Christians seem to be Catholics, not Protestants. So there is no doubt that the Jews more thoroughly control the Vatican and the Catholic faith and movement than they do Protestantism. There are probably multiple reasons for that, which I can't mention at the moment.

The Fabian Society is Jewish because "socialism" in its essence is a Jewish ideology. Further, I have long suspected one of the main influencers of Fabianism, Sidney Webb, to be a Jew.

As for my opinion on who is in control of the world, there is no question: It is the Jews. Anyone who says it's some other group like the Jesuits is a liar or is utterly mistaken. Furthermore, since the Jesuit movement itself is probably inspired by the Jews, there is no reason to point to some other group. The same problems are derived from the same group - the Jewish race. It is the same with the people who claim that it's the "elites" or "corporations" that are the problem. Who exactly are these "elites"? They are almost all, if not all Jews. Who controls all these "corporations"? It is always the Jews. These "conspiracy theorists" and "truthers", of course, deliberately avoid such facts.

I haven't looked at the Reddit post and probably won't. Any "conspiracy" that appears on a "mainstream", Jew-owned site like Reddit has been through the swarm of censoring Jews patrolling the Internet. They obviously won't let anyone tell the truth about their own race.

Anonymous September 26, 2022 at 7:53 PM

Hey! Sorry for the late reply. I am prisoner. The truth is, everytime you answer me, I enter in a kind of cathartic state where I study and analyze the topics you throw at me. Amazed and enthusiastic of the truth. So, this topic is clear to me now, I knew the Jews are behind everything and it's obvious that, besides what you told me, I see all this conspiracies and "the real enemy is the Jesuits" as a defensive mechanism created by them.

Anyway, now, if you don't bother, I want to know more! In your knowledge, throwing away the Jesuits and Catholics, what's the position here of the Protestants, and what about Christians? Then, talking about conspiracies, what are the masons, what's their job here? Are they Jews too? And templars?

To close this, is there a "group" or "cult" or something, or famous person, that openly or secretly fought Jews? My main inspiration was, probably obvious, Nazism and Hitler. So, yeah, I was shocked when I found out the truth. He was so openly against them that is shocking. Der ewige Jude was a documentary that I used to learn about them once. I thought they were (Nazism) the real answer to the Jewish powers. Being too very fond of the Nordic culture and power, and also the Aryan (Which is, for me, a red haired race of Indo men, from middle East regions, now living in the Basque people)

REPLY

So yeah, my question to you is, is there something or someone to follow that can be the answer or that will fight against them? Forgive me to throw you all this questions, you are the only one today I trust in this matters, I follow you very dearly. Thanks for everything!!

Contra Jewish Correspondent September 27, 2022 at 5:24 PM

I suspect you're right about the Jews introducing the Jesuit conspiracies as way to divert attention away from themselves.

Unfortunately, I can't answer everything you ask me either because my knowledge on these matters is limited or time is too restricted to answer them in much detail. I can address a few things briefly here.

There's no doubt the Jews have exerted some control over the Protestant denominations, but since Protestantism favors independent thinking and autonomy as opposed to the Catholic church, which has what could be called a "bureaucratic" structure, it make sense that the Jews have infiltrated it in lesser degree.

"Freemasons", from what I can infer is mostly a term used to describe those non-Jews in influential positions who are servants of international Jewry. I suspect they are less common now than they were formerly. In their stead we're seeing a flood of Jews pretending to be non-Jews whom we may mistake as "freemasons" but who are really Jews.

Nazism isn't the real answer because its leadership was fundamentally Jewish and it had its basis in the kind of pseudoscientific thought which the Jews have favored and promoted. One of their most cardinal principles, the existence of an "Aryan" race which you mentioned, is blatantly pseudoscientific.

I've mentioned him before, but Hans F. K. Guenther does an excellent job distinguishing race from nationality, language or religion. His comments on the Jews does not align entirely with mine, but I must recommend his works for more insight into the races, particularly the European races.

I suggest researching the Jewish Problem online. You can still find some good sources even if you have to sift through all the Jewish degeneracy and propaganda to find it. There are several theories on the position of the Jews to mankind, and none of them hold entirely favorably in my view. I encourage weighing the different possibilities yourself by further research. If you want further help, I can direct you to a few more suggested sources.

As I said, we simply cannot remain closed to the various possibilities.

Anonymous September 27, 2022 at 11:24 PM

I understand. If you can, I'll love to receive more sources from you. I read a lot of your articles, and the recommended websites on your other entry (which I suggested using the wayback machine on one of them). But, I feel there isn't enough information. What I mean is, and bear with me here, there a lot of info about them, and how they behave, how to identify them, etc but there isn't that much info on how to REALLY fight them, how to live outside of their spectrum, you know, I really really desire a kind of "group" one can join to discuss this matters, to DO THINGS, you know, like activism. Anti Jewish activism. Don't know if I explain myself here, hope you understand. For example, I'm here talking with you, using a message system, with short and limited explanations, doing the best we can, with what we got. Don't know. A Discord group, of international like minds, like you and me, to talk more lively about this topics, etc.

REPLY

Returning to my previous post, what I find is that, this pseudoscience you talk about, wants to enter in the mind of those who seek the "truth", diverging thoughts, believing in things that makes you... Powerful? And the truth is totally different. And it's harsh. To encounter yourself struggling with a lot of beliefs, throwing away one after the other.

Contra Jewish Correspondent September 28, 2022 at 5:15 PM

Well, we have to discard the beliefs and opinions and assumptions that are not in accord with facts or common sense, however painful it may be.

For a good introduction for better understanding Jews from the racial, anthropological, and medical perspectives I recommend "The Racial Biology of the Jews" by Otmar Freiherr von Verschuer.

For a very good general survey of Jews and their various political, economic, social, and racial influences the works of the German writer Theodor Fritsch are excellent. I believe at least one of his works, The Riddle of the Jews' Success, has been translated into English. Also very good is Henry Ford's International Jew (while I have some reservations about Ford, his work on the Jews is among the best I've ever read) if you haven't read it.

I also recommend reading the "Racial Origin and Earliest Racial History of the Hebrews" by Eugen Fischer, which is a good summary of the anthropology of the Jews in ancient times.

For a study of the Jewish racial psychology (which unfortunately portrays the Jews too favorably, but which is nevertheless very interesting), I suggest reading Fritz Lenz's comments in the book Human Heredity.

Too many of the newer publications are financed, promoted, and written by Jews or their cohorts to be considered reliable.

At any rate, I can't say I'm currently in a position to state what really must be done to solve the Jewish Problem. My current main focus is to investigate and spread the truth to more humans and encouraging people to combat Jewish degeneracy and corruption. It doesn't have to be on a broad social level, because that is impracticable at this point. The number of real Jew-aware people in our world is undoubtedly minuscule and there are plenty of non-Jewish degenerates who are on the Jewish side of things, which makes everything far more difficult.

And I don't think it's correct that none of the websites I linked offer any solutions. I believe Hufschmid's site suggests a number of possible solutions, although he isn't very determined in advocating any one. The Subverted Nation site offers one, as did the Shadow Masterminds blog I linked. The sites that offered the most radical solution (Subverted Nation and Shadow Masterminds) have now been removed by the Jews. I don't think it is wise to make radical solutions at this point, or even ever. I agree that our choices are limited by the Jews and their cohorts but we must work with what we have.

I agree with you that we need more advocacy, perhaps a more organized structure for discussing the Jewish Problem and forming wise policies on the basis of this information. Probably now we need it more than ever. But we (non-Jews) are far from a position to do it currently - it is impracticable. The main hinderances are censorship by the Jewish leaders in control of the platforms and other organizations we depend upon, and the indifference, even degeneracy which makes up the vast majority of the human population.

I'm not sure about Discord, but you can start a Discord chat yourself. Personally, I don't trust any of the currently popular or "trending" platforms like Discord, Instagram, YouTube, Twitter. And I have heard of problems about censorship on Discord, and the founder, Jason Citron, seems to be a Jew. But you can try it if you want. On the other hand, you can send me a message using the contact form at the bottom of this blog, in the event that this blog gets deleted (which I'm confident it will some day).
